"My Confession Stays The Same"

sion _____ stays the same. _____

2. Second Corinthians four eighteen says we look not at that which is seen but at the Word of God which cannot change.
Call those things which be not yet just as though they were and believe it in your heart and let God take it from there.
3. Hold fast to your con-fes-sion, be steadfast to the end.
cast not away your confidence.
These great words were written so that we would never quit.
Once you know what God has said
just set your face like flint.
4. You know anything that contradicts the Word is just a lie
and there is no room for ifs and buts and whys,
In order to receive from God agree with what He said.
If you will refuse to change that need will sure be met.

2. He said, "Yeah, but what about that feeling and pain
see you've already got it, it's too late to change.
You might as well admit it,
and open up the door."
I said, "I know you're a slick one you're just full of tricks.
But I ain't gonna fall for that old 'feeling hit.'
You see I walk by faith and not by how I feel."

3. He said, "Yeah, but God sent me here with this
so you would grow in holiness.
Take it like a man,
and open up the door."
I said, "Now God put it all on Jesus my King
and you telling me I
ought to bear it again?
Besides all that,
He don't work with you."
