The Peace of God

By John G. ...

Introduction

The Peace of God was a movement of the eleventh century, which sought to bring about a truce between the warring lords of the time. It was a response to the chaos and violence that had become the norm in the feudal system. The movement was based on the idea that God's peace should be maintained on earth, and that this could be achieved through a series of truces and agreements between the lords. The Peace of God was not a formal treaty, but rather a collection of local agreements that were often enforced by the Church. It was a significant step towards the establishment of a more stable and peaceful society in the Middle Ages.

Peace Of God

by Keith Moore

$\text{♩} = 72$

I let the peace of God rule in my heart. It qui-ets my mind from fear-ful thoughts and when pro-blems a-rise like storms on the sea the peace of the Lord is up-on me. When When cares of this life, it's wor-ries and strife, tempt-ed to fret and get all up-set just retry to en-ter in-to your life, it's mem-ber the One who's in-side you. You all up to you, which way will you choose. Will you have ov-er-come, yes the bat-tle's been won and the wor-ry and sin or let the peace en-ter in? peace ush-ers in while your mind's stayed on Him.

The Tower

by Keith Moore

$\text{♩} = 72$

Safe am I in the tow-er on— high. So se-cure from the storms be-low. Safe am I in the tow-er on— high, shel-tered un - der the wings of love.— Well the de-vil he shouts from far be-low, "Come down from your tow - er so high a - bove. Come rea - son with me. Won't you feel and see, for then I will make you to know de-feat."

The Tower

2.

Well the Lord fights my bat-tles and He wins them all. While I sing

His prais-es from the tow-er wall. I will not come down. - I stand - and re-fuse. I will stay in this tow - er. I'll nev - er be moved.

My Rock

by Keith Moore

$\text{♩} = 60$

The Lord is my rock and my high tow-er and my safe dwell-ing place. The Lord is my rock and my high tow-er and my safe dwell-ing place. He is rest in dis-tress. He's a sha-dow from the heat. He is strength to the weak. He's a com-fort to those in grief. At the blast of the ter-ri-ble ones, He's a re-fuge from the storm. He is my safe dwell-ing place.
